Our approach

We do not treat security simply as the deployment of personnel. We start with your circumstances, identify vulnerabilities, assess the threats and develop arrangements that suit how you live and work. Our work is built on three principles: Prevention · Preparation · Protection.

Core services

EXECUTIVE & CLOSE PROTECTION

Proportionate, professionally managed protection planned around your lifestyle, exposure and circumstances.

RESIDENTIAL SECURITY & PRIVATE ESTATE PROTECTION

Assessment and management of security for residences, estates and multiple-property portfolios.

PROTECTIVE INTELLIGENCE & THREAT ASSESSMENT

Threat assessment and monitoring that tells you what may affect you, how credible it is and what to do.

TRAVEL RISK MANAGEMENT & SECURE TRAVEL

Pre-travel assessments, journey management and secure movement, including private aviation and yachts.

SECURITY CONSULTANCY & RISK ASSESSMENTS

Independent surveys, reviews and practical recommendations you can understand and implement.

SECURITY OPERATIONS MANAGEMENT

Selection, coordination and oversight of qualified security personnel, with clear accountability.

CRISIS PREPAREDNESS & OPERATIONAL RESILIENCE

Emergency, escalation and continuity planning, so you are prepared before an incident occurs.

MEDICAL TRAINING COMING SOON

First aid, paediatric first aid, CPR & AED and FREC Level 3 courses, delivered and certified through a partner's licensed, approved training centre.

STERLING RISK GROUP™

CAPABILITY STATEMENT

Founder-led. Personally accountable.

Clients deal directly with the person responsible for their arrangements, supported by qualified specialists and compliant partners where required.

Stephen Smith, Founder and Director

Over 26 years and more than 48 countries, Stephen has led protective operations where the stakes were high and the margin for error was small. That experience now shapes how Sterling Risk Group plans for private clients, families and organisations.
